Rejections based on 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2-4 and 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 2, the limitation that the slot is at the "forward portion" of the spreader body appears to be inaccurate. Applicant appears to be referencing slot 51 which is adjacent vertical shaft 59, 50 which claim 1 states is at the rearward portion of the spreader body.

Rejections based on Prior Art

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 11, 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Skallerup (US 3,074,166) in view of Barsha (US 1,910,740).

Skallerup discloses an apparatus for measuring a patient's bite comprised of a spreader body 28 having a vertical shaft 34 coupled to a rearward portion of the body and two articulating bite recording arms 30 and 32 which are coupled to rotate about the vertical shaft 34 and may be adjusted toward or away from another to meet the needs of a particular patient (note column 3, lines 38 and 39). In regard to claim 1, the Skallerup bite recording arms hold a deformable material positioned thereon rather than having channels for holding articulating film to record the jaw position. Barasha, however, teaches that the jaw positions may be recorded by articulating film 13 held in channels 12 of recording arms 8. To have modified the Skallerup arms 30 and 32 to include a channel for receiving articulating film as a known prior art alternative to impression material 36 as taught by Barasha would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. In regard to claim 14, note elongated holding arm 104 connected to a vertical slot in the spreader body.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 28-30 and 32-40 are allowed. Claims 2-4, 7-10 and 15 would be allowable if rewritten in independent form to include all of the limitations of the claims from which they depend and to overcome the rejection based on 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph above.

Action Made Final

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

Art Unit: 3732

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
